Finding List of the Circulating Department Wilmington Institute Free Library (Wilmington, Del.),1894 Britain, Italy and the Origins of the Cold War E. Pedaliu,2003-10-23 Effie G H Pedaliu analyzes the British Labour government's contribution to the postwar reconstruction of Italy The book focuses on five areas the punishment of war criminality the reconstruction of the Italian armed forces the Italian elections of April 1948 and Italy's institutional role in western security arrangements and on European integrative bodies It reveals that British policy towards Italy was underpinned not only by power politics but also by moral and ideological considerations Comparative European Politics , The History of Families and Households: Comparative European Dimensions Silvia Sovic,Pat Thane,Pierpaolo Viazzo,2015-11-30 The history of family and households has been the subject of intensive research for over a generation In the 1970s Peter Laslett and others set the agenda with a strong emphasis on geographical differences between northern and southern eastern and western Europe Others have challenged this view pioneering different approaches This volume takes stock of the field focussing particularly on family history in South East Europe in comparison with the rest of Europe The authors consider what European families have in common their regional and local differences and changes over time using the rich and fascinating variety of sources and methods used by family historians today Contributors include Guido Alfani Judit Ambrus Mirjana V Bobi Siegfried Gruber Peter Guzowski Violetta Hionidou Daniela Lombardi Beatrice Moring Silvia Sovi Pat Thane Alice Velkov Marta Verginella and Pier Paolo Viazzo The Historical Geography of Europe Edward Augustus Freeman,1908 The Long Morning of Medieval Europe Jennifer R. Davis,2016-12-05 Recent advances in research show that the distinctive features of high medieval civilization began developing centuries earlier than previously thought The era once dismissed as a Dark Age now turns out to have been the long morning of the medieval millennium the centuries from AD 500 to 1000 witnessed the dawn of developments that were to shape Europe for centuries to come In 2004 historians art historians archaeologists and literary specialists from Europe and North America convened at Harvard University for an interdisciplinary conference exploring new directions in the study of that long morning of medieval Europe the early Middle Ages Invited to think about what seemed to each the most exciting new ways of investigating the early development of western European civilization this impressive group of international scholars produced a wide ranging discussion of innovative types of research that define tomorrow's field today The contributors many of whom rarely publish in English test approaches extending from using ancient DNA to deducing cultural patterns signified by thousands of medieval manuscripts of saints lives They examine the archaeology of slave labor economic systems disease history transformations of piety the experience of power and property exquisite literary sophistication and the construction of the meaning of palace spaces or images of the divinity The book illustrates in an approachable style the vitality of research into the early Middle Ages and the signal contributions of that era to the future development of western civilization The chapters cluster around new approaches to five key themes the early medieval economy early medieval holiness representation and reality in early medieval literary art practices of power in an early medieval empire and the intellectuality of early medieval art and architecture Michael McCormick's brief introductions open each part of the volume synthetic essays by accomplished specialists conclude them The editors summarize the whole in a synoptic introduction All Latin terms and citations and other foreign language quotations are translated making this work accessible even to undergraduates The Long Morning of Medieval Europe New Directions in Early Medieval Studies presents innovative research across the wide spectrum of study of the early Middle Ages It exemplifies the promising questions and methodologies at play in the field today and the directions that beckon tomorrow

The historical Geography of Europe Edward A. Freeman, 1881 The Crisis of Socialism in Europe Christiane Lemke, Gary Marks, 1992 The revolutions in Eastern Europe and the recasting of socialism in Western Europe since 1989 have given rise to intense debate over the origins character and implications of the crisis of socialism Is socialism in ideological electoral or organizational decline Is the decline inevitable or can socialism be revitalized This volume draws together historians and political scientists of Eastern and Western European politics to address these questions The collection begins with an historical overview of socialism in Western Europe and moves toward the suggestion of a framework for a post socialist discourse Among the topics covered are the birth and death of communism and a regime type in Eastern Europe how different forms of national communism were smothered by Sovietization in the postwar period the origins of revolutions in Eastern Europe the potential for social democracy in Hungary the role of the Left in a reunified German and directions for the Left in general Contributors Geoff Eley Konrad Jarausch Herbert Kitschelt Christiane Lemke Andrei Markovits Gary Marks Wolfgang Merkel Norman Naimark Iv n and Szonja Szel nya Sharon Wolchik Europe 1945-1990s Antonio Varsori, 2016-07-27 The book which is the outcome of an international conference held under the auspices of the University of Florence aims at sketching out through the contributions by distinguished scholars from various nationalities the origins and characteristics of the system which has been imposed on Europe between the end of the Second World War and the mid 1950s as well as at analysing the most important consequences of the events which from the fall of the Berlin Wall to the end of the cold war have radically transformed the European scene Liberalism in Illiberal States Mark I. Vail, 2018 After the end of the Cold War liberalism emerged as the world's dominant political economic ideology and economic liberalism seemed to have achieved global hegemony In Liberalism in Illiberal States Mark Vail acknowledges the dominance of economic liberalism but argues that its implementation in specific countries is always unique and dependent upon powerful historical factors He focuses on France Germany and Italy countries that many scholars do not view as liberal at all and contends they have in fact developed distinct forms of national liberalism of which their postwar models of capitalism were merely one manifestation Vail argues that these states political economies have been shaped by centuries old liberal traditions which have continued to inform national alternatives to transnational neoliberalism in the contemporary era

He presents case studies that show how nationally specific interpretations of liberalism are flexible and responsive to local realities especially in times of economic uncertainty By demonstrating how variegated the practice of economic liberalism actually is Liberalism in Illiberal States will reshape our understanding of liberal political economy in the contemporary world
