LOUISIANA TEACHER CERTIFICATION EXAM REQUIREMENTS
NTE/PRAXIS Exams—Educational Testing Service

- The Praxis Series are assessments for teacher candidates administered by Educational Testing Services (ETS). The number of required assessments depends on the content area in which a candidate will teach. Praxis I assesses basic reading, writing, and mathematics skills and is required of all candidates. Praxis II assesses subject matter and pedagogy skills in one of 25 content areas. In some content areas, there is no assessment; teacher candidates in these fields only need to pass Praxis I.
- Any candidate applying for an initial teacher certificate in Louisiana must pass the appropriate Praxis assessments. These assessments replaced the National Teachers Examination (NTE) assessments previously required by LDC. Praxis I and II qualifying scores are now accepted from certification candidates, but qualifying scores from NTE examinations taken prior to September 1999 are also accepted.
- Many teacher-preparation programs require that students take Praxis I as an entrance requirement, generally at the end of the sophomore year. Praxis II is usually taken near the end of course work and student teaching. Candidates from states that do not require those assessments must take the assessments to become certified in Louisiana. Out-of-state candidates who have already taken the exams must meet Louisiana's qualifying scores.
- ETS administers the assessments six Saturdays per year—usually in September, October, December, February, March, and May—at test sites throughout Louisiana. This assessment schedule is offered in all 50 states and in a number of foreign countries. Test sites and dates are listed in ETS's free annual publication, the Registration Bulletin.
- Candidates can take the Praxis II in a paper and pencil format or on a computer. The computer version of Praxis I, the Computer Based Test (CBT), is given year-round by appointment at select Sylvan Learning Centers. Cost of testing varies, depending upon number of tests taken at one sitting and whether paper/pencil or computer-based.
- Information on registration procedures, fees, and forms as well as test dates and locations is available in The PRAXIS Series Registration Bulletin (ask for the LOUISIANA edition), which is available at college and university teacher education offices, at university test centers, or by contacting ETS at the following address:
