A very simple board book with brightly coloured, high-contrast illustrations, and holes and finger trails suitable for babies and very young children. With an elasticated plastic attachment to attach the book to a buggy or baby gym, meaning it is always on hand to entertain and amuse, and will never get lost. Irresistibly tactile and suitable from birth upwards. Part of the Baby's Very First series, which includes touchy-feely books, cloth books, lift-the-flap play books and noisy books.

Billedbog. Introduces the sights and sounds of the changing seasons, along city streets and in country meadow

The animal kingdom's greatest celebrities and weirdest wonders have been herded together inside this book. Apes and anacondas, penguins and parakeets, whales and wallabies, there's amazing photographs and fascinating facts about them all. So come on a journey from the frozen Arctic, through the boiling desert, to the bottom of the deep blue sea and discover about the wonderful creatures we share our planet with. This brightly illustrated and engaging book will give hours of pleasure as well as help with school work and projects. Find out about it all with Collins. Part of the 'My First' series of reference books for young readers.

While one page presents specific information which serves as a clue to the identity of a particular black and white animal, the next page reveals the name of the animal.

This treasury of 52 stories collects together a rich resource of myths, fairy tales and legends from around the world, with a story for every week of the year. The book is broken into 12 chapters, for each of the 12 months of the year, and throughout, stories are matched to internationally celebrated dates, including Valentines Day and the International Day of Friendship, as well as seasonal events and festivals. Collected and retold by award-winning author Angela McAllister, and illustrated by internally recognised artist Christopher Corr, this is a book that will be treasured by families and appeal to teachers and librarians around the world.

This book on animals is the first in the Children's Nature Book Series (Bi-Lingual English Tagalog) for Global Filipinos. These BILINGUAL and ENVIRONMENTAL picture books series are conceptualized for the millions of descendants of Filipinos living in different parts of the world called GLOBAL FILIPINOS. It is the author's goal to plant a seed in the minds of future generations, and make a connection between the children's place of birth and the land of their ancestors using language as a springboard. At the same time, she also wants to open their young eyes to nature by providing pictures instead of cartoonish depictions of living organisms. By doing so, the author sincerely hopes to help awaken in the hearts of new generations of Global Filipinos, love for the PHILIPPINES and the ENVIRONMENT.

Answers questions about creatures that are furry, scaly, slippery, fluffy, and slimy.

Adorable animal images and simple text make for a great read for the youngest learners.
