In his apostolic letter Patris Corde (“With a Father’s Heart”), Pope Francis reflects on Saint Joseph and his multifaceted role as a father. The purpose of this letter, Pope Francis writes, “is to increase our love for this great saint, to encourage us to implore his intercession and to imitate his virtues and his zeal.” Saint Joseph is a beloved father; a tender, loving father; an obedient father; an accepting father; a creatively courageous father; a working father; and a father in the shadows. As protector, advocate, and guardian of the Holy Family, Saint Joseph has always been venerated as a father to all Christians. With this letter,

Few things in this earthly life are absolutely certain, but the most undebatable of these is death. Every person, even the atheist, will admit that death is certain. Death, however, is not the last event in this life of ours. Immediately after death, we shall be judged and then again on the Day of Judgment when all humanity will know us for what we are. Too often the reality of Heaven and salvation are highlighted at the expense of the Church's teachings on Death, Judgment, Purgatory, and Hell. Yet, these important doctrines of the Church hold the truths of salvation truths that can lead us to Heaven or can pull us away from it. In these pages, Fr. Wade Menezes, EWTN television host and Assistant General of the Fathers of Mercy, shows us that God has not called us to His wrath, but to salvation. He shows us that Heaven and Hell, salvation and damnation, eternal life and eternal punishment are all complementary doctrines. They need each other to be complete and we must understand the Church's teachings on all of these doctrines in order to have a balanced view of the world. Death, Judgment, Heaven and Hell these are the Four Last Things toward which we are moving each hour of the day and night. Read this book, and you'll have a firm grasp of one of the most important doctrines of Holy Mother Church that holds the truths of Heaven and our own salvation.

St. Joseph Catholic Church has had a long history in Athens, Georgia. The church started out in a small wooden building in 1881, with masses possible only once a month. The community has grown and expanded from inhabiting a tiny lot to a property close to 50 acres. "The parish of St. Joseph is unique in its involvement and activity in the many areas of parish and community life. As of spring 2012 we presently have 1100 registered, active families in the parish. Under the guidance of Fr. David McGuinness in 2005, fund raising was started to procure property and build a new church/school campus. The new school and multi-purpose building opened in 2012 and a church is planned for the new campus on Epps Bridge Parkway in Clarke County" (St. Joseph). St. Joseph approached the College of Environment + Design at the University of Georgia to help them design an educational and beautiful new property. The students were fifth year seniors, all with different ways to achieve these goals. This book shows the processes of one of the designs from start to finish. A design has to undergo many steps. To begin, after visiting the site, the property was analyzed concerning hydrology, slope and vegetation. Surveys were collected from the faculty at St. Joseph Catholic School. The surveys included a list of wishes and dreams, which were useful in designing the site and creating a master plan. Smaller spaces were shown in detail following the master plan. Technical drawings are provided, from construction plans to a planting palette. The site is designed for students, adults, volunteers, religious followers, and anyone else who might be involved with St. Joseph Catholic Church.

“A TREMENDOUS BREAKTHROUGH” in the study of St. Joseph... ..There are few subjects so challenging” to authors as St. Joseph. So says scholar Scott Hahn in his foreword to this book. Yet the pages that follow give not merely glimpses, but vistas, of St. Joseph’s world. Hahn continues: “You’ll learn about Nazareth — and how it was created almost ex nihilo shortly before Joseph’s birth. You’ll learn about religious practice and education in that place and time. You’ll travel to Egypt and encounter the fascinating settlements of Jews in that land. You’ll also find out how a carpenter worked in those days: what tools he used,
